An Actor's Sorrow.

J. A. LaClair, a clever member of the Paige Dramatic Company, spent a Christmas in this city, though he made merry at the Grand and amused hundreds with his clever feats as a juggler. Several days before Christmas he purchased a large doll and sent it to his little sister in a distant city, and on last Wednesday he received a letter stating that his beloved sister was dead when the doll arrived. The mother fainted when the present was unwrapped. Mr. LaClair was very much grieved over his sister's death, but was compelled to appear as usual with the company.

The News Found Them.

Advertising in THE NEWS always brings good results. Have you tried it?

Court Day Report.

January court attracted a very small crowd to Paris yesterday. There were only a few cattle offered on the square, and Jonas Weil sold forty to J. E. Clay at thirty-eight dollars each. A few mules were sold at prices ranging from $50 to $180.

Wanamaker's Idea.

"To discontinue an advertisement," says John Wanamaker, the largest advertiser in the world, "is like taking down your sign. If you want to do business you must let people know it. Standing advertisements, when frequently changed are better than reading notices. They look more substantial and business-like and inspire confidence. I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising."

If you cannot read this small print at a distance of 14 inches your eyesight is failing and should have immediate attention:

Imperial spectacles and eyeglasses have perfect lenses, always perfectly centered and made of purest material, set in frames of the highest elasticity and consequently of greatest durability, united with the utmost lightness and elegance. When both frames and lenses are scientifically fitted by Dr. C. H. Bowen's system they always give satisfaction for they are perfect. Never buy cheap spectacles, nor of men who do not know how to fit them. You will get poorly adjusted spectacles, or poor, imperfect lenses, and are better off without any glasses than with either of these defects. Buy Imperial spectacles of a reliable, skillful dealer, and they will last longer without change and be cheapest in the end.

We have engaged the services of Dr. C. H. Bowen who will visit our store on the second and last Thursdays of each month and invite all to call and have their eyes examined, for which there is no charge. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Next visit—Thursday, January 11, 1900. Hello, 170.
